Read the following writing task. You must write a story about this topic:

Writing a Narrative (Story)

Think of an incredible place that you'd like to visit. It can be real or make-believe. Write a story about the place you've chosen.

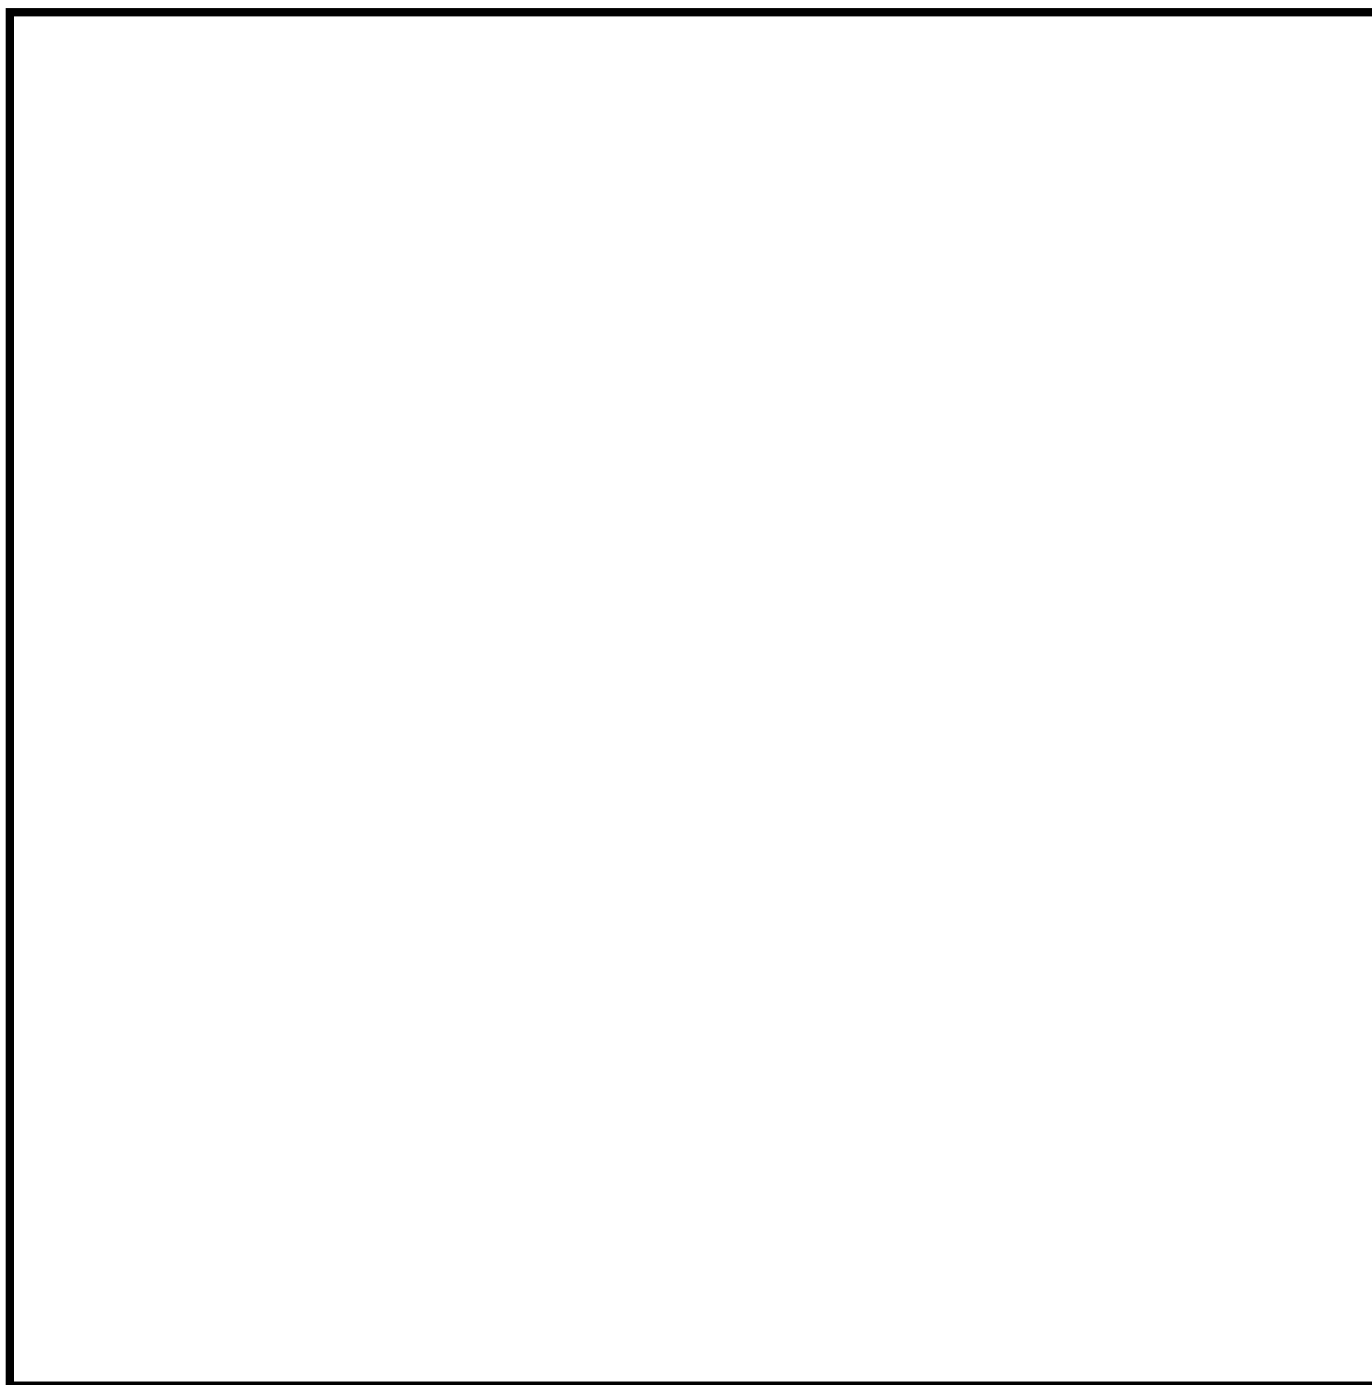

When you write about your experience, remember to:

- organize your narrative with a beginning, middle, and an end;
- use details; and
- use correct grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.

Planning Your Narrative (Story)

You may use this page to help you plan your story before you begin writing. Your work on this page will NOT be scored.

You should not spend more than 10 to 15 minutes planning your story.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for students to plan their narrative story. The box is currently blank.
